Margaret Mary Kowalczyk attended Holy Innocents Grammar School, Holy Family Academy and then received her degree from DeLourdes College. She also holds a Master's degree in Education/Administration from Concordia University. During her career, she worked as both a teacher and principal at several schools. Margaret Mary joined us here at St. Symphorosa in the year 2000 as our principal. Her warm personality, sincerity and integrity garner the respect and admiration of teachers and students alike. In her free time, Margaret Mary likes to read, listen to country music and watch "I Love Lucy" reruns.
