Mrs. Dawn Gasior is a former graduate of St. Symphorosa. She attended John F. Kennedy High School and Northeastern Illinois University. She holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in Elementary Education and a degree in Early Childhood Education. Dawn started her career at Our Lady of Guadalupe, where she taught for a year. She left there and headed for St. Symphorosa, and initiated the Kindergarten program. She spent 26 years teaching second grade at St. Symphorosa, before returning to Kindergarten in 2010. For the past 33 years, children at St. Symphorosa have been blessed to be in her classroom. Her selfless approach, creativity and ability to see the best in her students make her an integral part of our faculty. Dawn is married with four children. In her free time she likes attending White Sox games, following college basketball, scrap booking, photography, gardening and writing poetry. She has been nominated for the "Golden Apple" and has won the "Heart of the School" award. She was published in "Who's Who Among American Teachers" in four separate editions, and has had an original poem published in the book, "Dreaming in Metaphors".
