

Mrs. Nancy Loduca
6th Grade Teacher & Assistant Principal Room A-306
nloduca@stsymphorosaschool.org

Mrs. Nancy Loduca attended St. Daniel the Prophet Grammar School, Lourdes High School, and DePaul University. She taught for six years at St. Jane de Chantal before coming to St. Symphorosa, where she has taught for over twenty-five years. Mrs. Loduca is the Assistant Principal, was active on the Curriculum Mapping Cabinet and is the coordinator of the Northwestern University Midwest Talent Search, Geography Bee and Histories for KID. She is currently serving on the Enrollment Team and Transformation Committee. In addition, she has assisted in the planning and organization of the annual spring Academic Family Night. Mrs. Loduca also volunteers within the parish by service as a substitute for the Religious Education Program, helping with Baptism Preparation classes and working at the summer parish Family Fest. Mrs. Loduca's devotion to children, creative, polished style of teaching and willingness to try new things makes for strong students. Mrs. Loduca is married with one married daughter. In her spare time, Mrs. Loduca likes reading, scrapbooking, traveling, cooking, doing crossword puzzles, singing in the St. Symphorosa Choir and going to movies and to the theater. She has been nominated for the "Heart of the School" award and "Who's Who Among American Teachers". She has also received the "You Make a Difference" award from Queen of Peace High School twice.